Chicago is now the nation's "First City" along with being our own beloved Second City! The time is perfect for an exciting and informative day trip spent exploring Chicago's rich presidential past, present, and future. Chicago has been the site of countless momentous presidential events.

We will start the day with a guided tour of Barack Obama's Chicago! We'll visit the Hyde Park/Kenwood neighborhood the Obama's have called home. We'll see:

- * The site of Barack and Michelle's first kiss
- * The Obama's wedding reception hall
- * The school where Obama taught law
- * The outdoor courts he still plays
- * Their favorite bookstore
- * Obama's barber

After seeing several downtown sites such as Obama's gym and the site of the election night rally, we'll have lunch! Grab a tray and head through the line for a tasty lunch at a South Side institution. You'll enjoy a bowl of soup or potato pancake with ½ an overstuffed sandwich (pastrami, corned beef, roast beef or turkey pastrami), dessert and fountain drink.

After lunch we'll continue our day with visits to other landmark sites in Presidential History.

- * The site President Lincoln was nominated
- * The site of the unrest during the '68 DNC
- * The hotel the Clinton's frequently stayed
- * The site where Roosevelt was historically nominated for a 4th term!
- * The Blackstone Hotel known as the "Hotel of Presidents"
- * The famous "smoke-filled rooms"
